We love the church. But we have to say we've seen some of the ugliest things happen in the church when it comes to communicating.

We've seen ballistic anonymous emails and letters sent to pastors. We've heard people gossip about others. We've witnessed people complain about the pastor and never actually talk to the people involved.

Most of that could be avoided if we followed a direct, biblical approach. How Christians talk and act is a direct reflection on their friendship with Jesus.

The 1 Thing that you can do today...
When you're tempted to speak unkindly about someone else, stop. Write down your message first, then rewrite it in a kind way.
