Children's Ministry Magazine Launches Professional Edition Newsletter

April 20, 2006

LOVELAND, Colo.— Children's Ministry Magazine announced today that it will be releasing a new, print-based newsletter to be published on a monthly basis. Children's Ministry Magazine Professional Edition will cover topics like volunteer recruitment and retention, staff issues, fundraising, facilities management, public relations, and financial planning and budgeting.

"Children's Ministry Magazine Professional Edition was designed for those who take ministry seriously and need higher-level information and resources to effectively manage a growing program and make the most of their ministry career," said Chris Yount-Jones, Executive Editor of Children's Ministry Magazine. "This new resource provides leadership insights for more effective ministry from experts in the field."

Children's Ministry Magazine Professional Edition will be available July 2006 through Group Publishing. For more information visit www.ChildrensMinistry.com/gopro or call 1-800-447-1070.
